

THE PUEBLO WORLD

CROW CANYON
ARCHAEOLOGICAL CENTER

Cultural Explorations

MARCH 31 – APRIL 6, 2024

Step into the Pueblo world and discover the depth and diversity of Pueblo communities in the Rio Grande Valley. Accompanied by extraordinary Pueblo educators, enjoy a unique opportunity to experience deeper dimensions of Pueblo lifeways: Attend a Corn Dance at Kewa Pueblo, visit talented jewelers and potters, and learn to visit ancestral places and sacred landscapes with respect.

Beginning and ending in Albuquerque, New Mexico, follow along the footsteps of the ancestors and immerse yourself in the vibrant cultural traditions of the Pueblo world.

FEATURING:

Anthony Lovato is a member of Kewa Pueblo (Santo Domingo) and a 5th generation artist. He is a graduate of the Institute of American Indian Arts and was honored as a Living Treasure in 2023 by the Museum of Indian Arts and Culture. Anthony is devoted to cultural heritage initiatives and public education.

Lee Moquino (Pueblo and Apache) is the founder and director of the Indigenous Knowledge Collective where he facilitates the transfer of Indigenous Knowledge through the Tewa language, earthen building, traditional farming, textiles, and clay as a seventh-generation potter.
